2. CONFIRMATION OF MINUTES

The minutes were not confirmed

3. MATTERS ARISING FROM PREVIOUS MINUTES

No matters from previous minutes discussed

4. OT ASSOCIATIONS

WAOTA AGM attended by Jacqui Hunt on behalf of DOT(WA); no new business was raised at that meeting.

5. NEW BUSINESS

Motor Dysgraphia PD:

Last week DOT(WA) delivered a Motor Dysgraphia Professional Development event on the 13th June, and repeated on the 14th June. DOT(WA) would like to thank Sam Johnson and Felicity Hopkinson who coordinated this event, and Jacqui Hunt who managed the remote access. It was a great opportunity to run a hybrid professional development event (both face to face and remote attendance options available) and we are looking forward to receiving your feedback on this PD.

DOT(WA) AGM:

The next meeting is our AGM – we are looking for new committee members. There are a range of positions available –

- Chairperson

- Deputy chairperson
- Treasurer
- Meeting secretary
- Membership secretary
- Email coordinator
- Bimonthly PD coordinator
- National / international PD Coordinator
- Website coordinator
- Research
- Marketing – Facebook pages and email newsletter
- Rural and remote rep
- Mentorship – to run Mentor Connect program
- General committee member

Meetings are generally held once every two months, on a Tuesday, at 6.30pm via Zoom (but this is open to discussion with the new committee).

The presenter at our AGM on Tuesday 23rd August will be Cath Fitzhardinge, Occupational Therapist and Nature Space Consultant. We will begin with Cath's presentation and then host the AGM. We will also award the DOT(WA) OT Award for Excellence.
